

ST3000 HSC

With the ST3000 HSC racing suit, directly resulting from the Heat Stress research and medical program, we are witnessing a new era in racing suits history.

The ST3000 HSC optimizes drivers' performance, comfort and safety.

«Thanks to the highly improved breathability, Porsche Motorsport recommends the ST3000 racing suit to all professional and ambitious hobby race drivers, who are sitting in their race car for longer than the duration of a sprint race.» Porsche Motorsport
